Vinification

This wine has developed after long fermentations, partly in oak barrels. It is the result of a subtle and meticulous blending between the oldest vines and the best climates of Fuissé.

Tasting notes

'Vieilles Vignes' is a deep gold wine that has an intense brioche aroma with hints of fruits and flowers, and some minerality. It has a complex palate of green apples, with hints of citrus, creamy oak notes, and a mineral that perseveres into an impressive finish.

Best to Drink:

5 to 6 years

Wine pairing:

This Burgundy will accompany fish, poultry, and cheese.
